

Adem Long

Logistics Manager, NSW Ports

Director, ICHCA Australia

Adem Long is a 20-year veteran of the Transport and Logistics sector having worked in variety of leadership roles within TNT, P&O Ports and Toll Global Logistics.

Adam is currently the Logistics Manager at NSW Ports (previously holding the role of Senior Manager Supply Chain at Sydney Ports Corporation). He has responsibility for all logistics operations across Port Botany, Port Kembla and the Intermodal Terminals at Cooks River and Enfield.

Adem is the Australian industry representative to APMEN, the Model E-Port Network Group working under APEC, as well as one of its Expert Panel members. He is also a member of the Australian Logistics Councils' Infrastructure Committee and Chair of the Port Botany Cargo Facilitation Committee.

Adem has a MBA and Diploma in Management from the Macquarie Graduate School of Management as well as Associate Diploma in Logistics Management.