

Greg Burk

State Chair - ICHCA South Australia

---

Greg commenced working in the Shipping Industry in June 1974 with Patrick Agencies, which was the Port Agency company for the Howard Smith Industries group. Through various mergers and buy outs, this company eventually became as it is known today, Inchcape Shipping Services, based in London.

Greg remained with this company for 38 years during which time he progressed to State Manager and then to National Operations Manager based in and commuting between Adelaide and Sydney.

Greg joined Viterra (Grain Storage and Handling/Bulk Terminal Operators) in May 2012 and was the Shipping Services Manager there until his retirement on 30 September 2016.
