

Michael Simms

Cargo & Logistics Manager – Flinders Ports

State Chair – ICHCA South Australia

Michael Simms is the Cargo Manager for the Business Development Department of Flinders Port Management Services, part of the Flinders Ports Holdings Group. He commenced with the port in 1995, then Ports Corp South Australia, and has continued with the port since privatisation in 2001.

Previously, Michael has worked at Customs and Shipping Agencies in Port Adelaide. He has been attending the University of Experience in Adelaide since 1981, after leaving school.

Michael is also a passionate yachty and is President of the Largs Bay Sailing Club.